EDITOR'S NOTE

Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way!

December has been one of a hectic month. Kicking it off was the opening of SSF, a living concept and home store with their wide array of innovative design. Then, it was topped off with the opening of our 2nd largest anchor tenant, Harvey Norman, being the first in East Malaysia has been something a lot of us have been looking forward to. Last but not least, making a comeback into the retail F&B is the well-known Chatime as they opened a kiosk located at Level 3 of the mall.

The month of October and November saw plenty of events happening at the mall. From family orientated activities by Q-dees Kindergarten to a Halloween Run held here for the first time at the mall, to cake decorating and bento making contest, there were plenty of events to keep both kids and parents occupied as we believe the mall is not just a place for shopping but a place to spend time together.

As we kicked off into December, the mall is officially 2 years old since its door opened in 12 December 2015 to the public. To commemorate the occasion, the management has decided to donate to 3 charitable bodies whom has much more need for the money for their daily expenses. At the same time, 3 lucky shoppers were picked from the Shop, Win and Fly will be off to Perth, Tokyo and Seoul. Congratulations and hope you have a wonderful vacation!

Looking forward to a better and brighter new year in 2018, we will be ushering in the year of the Earth Dog. This time, we featured some of the new and fresh ideas for the incoming next biggest festive season, Chinese New Year. Also included are some fun facts about the Chinese New Year which will be a joy to read and learn. Rediscover the reasons for the things you do during Chinese New Year as well as their significant symbolism behind it. Included in this edition of Vivarious are tips and tricks for dolling up this Chinese New Year by Elianto Make Up without burning a hole in your purse. And also, places within the mall where one can also do up their hair as well as manicure and pedicure.

Wow, that is one long note. I shall not take up more of your time and have fun exploring this edition of Vivarious. Hope you have fun reading it as much as we have creating it! With that, I would like to wish our readers a Happy New Year and Gong Xi Fatt Chai! Till then, see you in the next edition.

The 12th of December 2017 is a day to remember as it has been exactly two years since Vivacity Megamall first opened its doors to the public. On this day, Vivacity Megamall celebrates its 2nd anniversary and to commemorate this day, Vivacity Megamall had decided to donate a whopping RM10000 each to three independent charity organizations which are the Sarawak Society For The Deaf, Sarawak Cheshire Home and BB Love Box Project 2017.

To start off the event, there was a handing over of cheques to the respective organizations. Followed by the grand draw for Shop, Win & Fly where three lucky shoppers won a trip to Perth (courtesy of Malindo Airways), Seoul and Tokyo. To conclude this event, there was a cake cutting ceremony which marks the end of this joyous day. There was a small feast prepared for the staffs, guest and members of the media to enjoy. Joy and laughter filled the air as everyone was having a great time.

jolliest season

The jolliest season of the year has arrived. To celebrate the joyous season, Vivacity Megamall has hosted many events throughout the month of Christmas. Some of which includes brass band performance by the Boys' Brigade, Christmas carolling by various Churches in Kuching, a Christmas skit and a nutcracker dance performance by Tyng Dance Academy.

A Christmas bazaar was also held from the 15th of December to the 1st of January, where items sold ranged from foods to knitted items. There was also a Santa appearance in the megamall where freebies were distributed. On the Christmas day itself, Vivacity hosted a meet and greet session for the release of Fuying and Sam's new album.

The dates of Chinese New Year change every year as the Chinese Lunar Calendar is based on the movement of the moon, which has 29 or 30 days in a month. As it is celebrated during the Winter Solstice by the Chinese, it usually falls between January 21st and February 20th. The celebration last for 15 days, with the last day known as 'Chap Goh Meh' where in certain part of Asia region believes in throwing mandarin oranges into rivers in hope of finding themselves a good partner.

A collection of fun facts
How many do

Year of the Earth Dog

Chinese New Year 2018 welcomes the year of the Earth Dog. The last cycle was the Fire Dog in 2006. The element of the year is based on the concept of Yin and Yang.

Out goes the old, In comes the new

Days leading to Chinese New Year, families will spend time spring cleaning and sprucing up their home to usher in the New Year. It is out goes the old, in comes the new. Every nook and cranny are dusted and cleaned as it is believed to drive out the bad luck. Old and worn items are put away. Spanking new things are bought to make the home nicer as this signifies the welcoming of the new year, a new beginning.

Red

The colour red can be found in abundance during this time. It signifies happiness, wealth and prosperity in Chinese culture. Lanterns will be a popular decorative item, as well as couplet (aka chunlian) is found to be hung around the house.

you know?

Reunion Dinner

Families from far and wide will congregate back at their home to sit down and have a meal together for the year. This is usually done at home rather than at restaurants though modern times has change to a mix of both.

Lion Dance

The heavy and loud thumping of the drum indicates one thing only. Lions prancing and dancing to the beat of the drum and clash of the cymbals. Did you know that the common lion dance we all know and love is known as the Southern Lion which originates from Guangdong Province. The loud sounds from the drums and cymbals is believed to drive away the evil spirit and the lions giving blessing to wherever they perform.

Red Packet aka Ang Pow

Something which most kids will be looking forward to as they will receive red packet from their parents as well as their elder relatives whom are married. The red colour of the packet symbolise good luck and helps to ward off evil spirits but we can also find multicoloured ones.

Fire Cracker

It will be one of the biggest annual firework show around the world as Chinese all around the world light up the skies with colourful display of fireworks, trying to outdo each other as they usher in the New Year.

Bak Gwa

(Dried Meat Jerky)

This meat delicacy goes hand in hand with Chinese New Year. Ask anyone who celebrates the festive season what food they look forward to during this time, the bak kwa will be one of the top name in the list. The sweet and salty delicacy which originated from China, where it was used as a way to preserve meat, now has been improved and the meat much softer though in general, it has not changed much. The meat is prepared and grilled over heat or charcoal.

Mandarin Orange

The mandarin orange plays an important role during Chinese New Year as it traditionally symbolise abundance and good fortune. The citrus fruit tree is usually displayed in abundance to usher in good fortune and luck, although it is not recommended to eat the fruit as it is meant mainly as decoration only. The fruits is given to family and friends as a token of good luck together with the traditional red packet.

Nian Gao

(Sticky Cake)

This sweet snack, which was believed to be an offering to the Kitchen God with the aim of keep him from badmouthing the family when he reports to the Jade Emperor now becomes a must for those who celebrates Chinese New Year. The name Nian (粘) which means sticky sounds like the word 年 (year), and the word Gao (糕) which means cake but sounds like (高) which means tall symbolise raising higher in each coming year. It is considered good luck to eat nian gao during Chinese New Year as it means one prosper as the year passes.

One will never celebrate CNY without this few important element to usher in the new year!

Yee Sang

The Yee Sang or raw fish salad, consist of 7 different ingredients, mostly vegetables, and some crackers, which represents the 7th day where humans were created by the goddess Nüwa in Chinese mythology. The addition of fish into the dish as it symbolise the word 'abundance', is also one of the reason why the name of the dish became to be. Dinners toss the ingredients as high as they can, signifying the height of their growth in the future while chanting their wishes as well as the phrase 'loh hey!'. Also, pre-made yee sang is available for purchase at your local supermarket without the need to order it from a restaurant.

Fish

Fish is one of the highly sought-after dish as it represents increase in prosperity. It is believed that the word fish in Chinese (鱼 Yú) sounds like surplus, where one hopes they have surplus for the following year.

Hong Kong Handmade Dessert

許留山

HUI LAU SHAN®

HLS is a dessert specialist founded in Hong Kong since 1960s. Starting the business from selling Chinese herbal tea with traditional trolley to the first specialized herbal tea store at the 1970s, the company is now developed as a global food and beverage brand which attracts tourists from all over the world.

60's

In the early 1960s, our founder Mr. Hui Chi-Yuk took after the legacy of his late father Mr. Hui Lau-Shan, and started selling traditional herbal jelly and herbal tea by traditional trolley in Yuen Long, Hong Kong.

Our journey through the years...

70's-80's

In the 1970s, HLS launched the first specialized herbal tea store in Yuen Long. Until the 1980s, innovation began by selling classic desserts and snacks like Chewy Ball, Fruit Jelly, Radish Cake and Coconut Milk, etc.

90's

In 1992, HLS invented a new recipe of "Mango Sago" and had made a hit in the city. As the pioneer of fresh fruit dessert store chain in Hong Kong, we continue to innovate by launching a series of creative desserts and drinks which has gained a great popularity in Hong Kong.

2016-2017

In 2016, a new sub-brand Mango Cottage launched in Malaysia and until the time, HLS operates over 260 branches globally. In 2017, we entered to Seoul, South Korea. Looking to the future, HLS is pathing way to expand business to more overseas markets and hoping to make the name of Hui Lau Shan further globalized.

2000's

In 2000, HLS launched the first "Handmade Fresh Fruit Drinks" which initiated a brand new "Drinks To Go" concept. Besides, the series of unique Hong Kong style dessert also gains popularity among the tourists and become one of the attractions in Hong Kong.

In 2008, HLS opened the first branch in Shenzhen and started expanding the business to different territories of China. Later in 2012, our footprint was expanded to Malaysia and there are more than 20 branches across the country.

2017

On 19 April 2017, HLS opened its first branch in East Malaysia at Vivacity Megamall (Level 3, L3-K004), Kuching.
